

Clinton: The Thornwell Memorial church has recently elected two elders and two deacons. Dr. W. P. Jacobs, president of the Orphanage, has been called to the pastorate of this church.

Blenheim: Rev. Charles Richards, D. D., who has been visiting his father, Rev. J. G. Richards, at this place, has just closed a meeting at Dunbar church, Pee Dee Presbytery. Six members were added to the communion. Mr. Richards has returned to his pastorate at Davidson College, N. C., leaving many friends where his father, now in his eighty-first year, has done much faithful Christian work. Rev. Samuel Hay, of the Columbia Seminary, is filling the appointments of his venerable grandfather, Rev. J. G. Richards, at Benheim, Dunbar and Reedy Creek during his vacation, with great satisfaction to the members and others.

Anderson, Central Church: Sunday June 27, was John Calvin Sunday in this church. At the morning service, Rev. Dr. Reed, professor of Church History in Columbia Theological Seminary, delivered an address on "John Calvin, the Man and His Times." At the evening service President H. L. Smith of Davidson College, spoke on "John Calvin, the World Educator." The addresses were very instructive and inspiring to all the members. An interesting feature of the services was the unique musical program. The Huguenot hymn "Navarre" was sung and also several selections from the Genevan Psalter of 1543.

TEXAS.

Dallas, Oak Cliff Church: The executive committee of foreign missions has assigned Mrs. E. R. Sims, of Cardenas, Cuba, to the Oak Cliff church as its individual missionary. Her support has already been subscribed by this church.

Bryan: Rev. J. T. Caughley was installed pastor of this church on Sunday, June 13. Rev. W. R. Hudson performed the installation ceremony and also preached at night.

Jacksonville: The corner stone of the new church was laid on June 23. When completed the building is to cost $20,000 and will be one of the most suitable and attractive houses of worship in the State. Rev. F. H. Ford is the pastor.

Somerville: Mr. C. H. Smith, a student of Austin Seminary, will supply this church during the summer, giving one Sunday each month to Brenham church. After October 1, these churches hope to secure a pastor for all of his time.

Hillsboro, Central Church: A protracted meeting which has been in progress for the past two weeks, conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. E. Robinson, closed on Sunday night, June 28. Thirteen have united with the church. Two elders, Messrs. E. S. Davis and Tom Conover, were elected.

Higgins: At a congregational meeting held on June 28, it was voted unanimously to erect a house of worship beginning about September 15. A site was donated by a local attorney, Mr. E. C. Gray, and with what has been promised from the committee, a house can be built to meet all adequate needs. This congregation came to the Southern Church one year ago. The change was made so that they could group with Shattuck, Okla.

VIRGINIA.

Emporia: The calls which have recently been extended Rev. F. L. Delaney by the Ruston and Alabama churches of Louisiana have been answered in the negative. Mr. Delaney does not see his way clear to accept these calls.

Windy Cove: The pastor, Rev. J. A. Thomas, preached at the Woodland outpost on Sunday afternoon, June 27. Two men, one of them the head of a family, were received into the church on profession of faith in Jesus Christ. We rejoice to see men coming to Christ.

Hampton: The congregation of this church on June 18, tendered a splendid reception to their new pastor, Rev. W. S. Trimble, in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. All seemed inspired with one purpose, namely, to impress the cordiality and heartiness of their greeting port of President George E. Caskie showed to the pastor and his wife, and a delightful time spent in conversation, elegant refreshments were served. In departing the company gave the pastor a most cordial assurance of welcome, and pledge of support in his work.

Lynchburg: The trustees of the Presbyterian Orphanage, which is maintained here by the Southern Presbyterian churches in Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia and the District of Columbia, met June 28, in annual session. The report of President George E. Caskie shows the institution's debt provided for, this having been $14,000 a year ago. The members present are: George E. Caskie, Rev. J. A. McMurray, N. B. Handy, R. S. Terry, Lynchburg; T. N. Williamson, Danville; Rev. J. R. Sevier, Alexandria; J. Hoge Tyler, Radford.

Fredericksburg: The Children's Day exercises at the Sunday school were of an exceedingly interesting character. The opening hymn, "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," was sung with spirit and the orchestra accompaniment added greatly to the effect. Mr. S. G. Howison made a short address showing the needs of the Graybill Memorial School of Mexico. Rev. W. C. Buchanan, of the Japan mission, talked most interestingly of mission work in Japan. The mite boxes were brought forward and with them a structure was formed, designed by Prof. Rankin, representing the Graybill school. The offering amounted to $42. The singing throughout the whole service was excellent, the prayers very earnest and the spirit of the whole service devotional. After the service the floral decorations were carried to the cemetery and placed upon the graves of former workers in the school.

To Describe the Inner Workings of Roosevelt's Term: James R. Garfield, ex-secretary of the treasury, is writing a book at his home which will reveal some of the inner workings of the Roosevelt administration. It is said he will tell some of the secrets of the famous cabinet meetings and also something about tennis as played by the man who recently kept things humming around the white house.
